

The Anatomical Society winter meeting
Magdalene College, University of Cambridge
14th to 16th December, 2015

“Back to the Future”
incorporating an Education Symposium on “Establishing a Para-Curriculum in Anatomy”

Key Speakers:

Stephen Barclay, University of Cambridge

Sarah Channon, Royal Veterinary College

Augusto Coppi, University of Surrey

Emily Evans, Medical Illustrator

Mick O’Dea, President of the Royal Hibernian Academy

Ruth Richardson, Fellow of the Royal Historical Society

David Riches, University of Cambridge

Susan Standring, King’s College London

Tom Turmezei, University of Cambridge

Francis Wells, Papworth Hospital

Young Investigators are invited to submit abstracts for best Oral or Poster presentation prizes. There will be lectures from recipients of Aging Cell and Journal of Anatomy Best Paper Prize, and the award lecture for The Anatomical Society Prize.

Exhibition and tours of the Pepys Library, Magdalene College.
Gala dinner on Tuesday, 15th December, in Magdalene College Hall.

Registration will open on the 15th September, and abstract submission will close on 14th November.

For more information please consult <http://www.anatsocmeeting.co.uk>